Whilst slightly less broad-ranging in its scope, Patricia Fara's Science: A Four Thousand Year History looks much more deeply into the science component. Inevitably there are overlaps, to the point where they both use Joseph Wright's The Orrery as an illustration, but ultimately the two experiences are complementary, not a duplication.

Science: A Four Thousand Year History
is an unconventional
take on the history of science. Unlike conventional histories, Patricia Fara, tries to debunk scientists and their achievements
rather than celebrating them as heroic genius in pursuit of reality.
